I chose 336 Hours because it so accurately reflects the experience - a nail-biting hour-by-hour trial, where time appears to be almost standing still, and where you can feel hopeful and excited at 3pm, and by 4pm be plunged into a pit of despair.

Synopsis. 336 Hours is the diary of a woman in the final stages of her third, and supposedly final, IVF treatment. Often funny, sometimes moving, this is a brutally honest account of every thought and feeling a woman is likely to experience while desperately trying for a baby, and how this will inevitably impact all the relationships in her life.
