A Matter of Honour was a pleasant surprise for me and very different from my usual current day crime thrillers. I enjoyed it as my daily read and the quality of this novel gets the top score of 5 stars from me. I suggest readers forget the time period this novel is set in and just enjoy this story for what it is.

I picked up A matter of Honor and found myself drawn in early in the book. Archer's writing style is very easy to follow and he never leaves you wondering where you are in the story. You always know who "he" or "she" is and where they are in space and time. I particularly enjoy the snippets of information Archer uses to color in the text.
