Dark World Chronicles by Tom DeMarco

The Ruby Galaxy (RX-5) is constructed of high quality anodized aluminum and includes a glass focusing lens for superior laser performance. Ships with red Z-Bolt® lanyard and black nylon belt carry pouch (MOLLE style) for field use, transport, & stowage.

A Ruby Beam of Light is not perfect. The start is a little too leisurely. The ending will please some and frustrate others. But what we have here is a damn good read that is not only exciting--and frequently thrilling--but filled with thought-provoking insights about our current society. Highly recommended.

The beam is an explosion inhibitor . . . Something strange is going on inside the ruby colored beam of coherent light. Physicist Homer Layton has a theory that time runs marginally slower there. The beam is injecting a disturbance into time itself. His team has dubbed this phenomenon "the Layton Effect."

Ruby has two indices of refraction because a single light ray is split into two light rays which travel at different velocities when entering the stone. The extraordinary ray, a beam of light that varies in wavelength, enters ruby with an index of refraction of 1.762.
