A position paper (sometimes position piece for brief items) is an essay that presents an arguable opinion about an issue – typically that of the author or some specified entity. Position papers are published in academia, in politics, in law and other domains. The goal of a position paper is to convince the audience that the opinion presented is valid and worth listening to.

The rest of this paper discusses these issues in this order. 1.4 PRELIMINARY POSITION The AER considers that based on its assessment of the issues identified in the position paper there is a sound case for prescribing the “as-incurred” approach. In particular, based on an assessment of the compatibility of each accounting approach to the; ex-
