The Era of André Charles Boulle (1642-1732): a European Century By Ulrich Schneider The Louvre Galleries By Jean Nérée Ronfort and Jean-Dominique Augarde Paris, City of Light By Joan DeJean New Biography and Successive Workshops of André Charles Boulle (1642-1732) By Jean Nérée Ronfort Chronology and Evolution of Boulle's Work By Jean Nérée Ronfort

Two historians have suggested that it may have been made in the workshop of Andre-Charles Boulle (1642-1732), cabinet-maker to Louis XIV, but there is no definitive evidence to support this. Regardless of whether or not it originated with Boulle, the commode was clearly made in an important Parisian workshop, as evidenced by the fineness of its construction, marquetry and mounts.

André-Charles Boulle (French, 1642-1732), described by his contemporaries as “the most skilful artisan in Paris”, was a French cabinetmaker of great fame, who worked as the cabinetmaker and sculptor for the king of France, Louis XIV. Boulle's talent for highly detailed marquetry work, which combined tortoiseshell, pewter and brass, led to the technique itself being named after him, as ‘Boulle work’ or ‘Boulle marquetry’.
