Chapter Text. I was angry at Richard. Again. You'd think this would no longer be news. I jerked open the door of my Jeep, still angry, keen on getting the hell away from the lupanar. It never ceased to amaze me how, after all this time, after all we had been through, Richard could still make biting little comments that dug under my skin.

Affliction is, at its roots, about loss and redemption (in my opinion). So, based on the quotes, here goes: 1) Jason dies. Anita accidentally makes Richard her new wolf to call (in spite of him already being Jean Claude's wolf to call). This binds them together in a whole new way, opening new doors for their triumvirate.
