Federalist Paper 1 Summary: Alexander Hamilton October 27, 1787. Hamilton begins the discussion of the entire 85 papers by identifying the critical issue that the draft constitution is meant to answer in the affirmative. He asks the reader to consider the truth of, in his words, "whether societies of men are really capable or not of establishing good government from reflection and choice or whether they are forever destined to depend for their political constitutions on accident and force".
