New Avalon: the Return of King Arthur by Jeff Fuell was an excellent modern take on the story of King Arthur. I've always been fascinated with Arthurian legend and this story was a believable story of the second coming of King Arthur.

King Hadrian you shall have Bellatrix Black as a bride and in return 1 Million Galleons shall be handed to House Black and Bellatrix will be given the title Lady Le Fay when you are wed," Cygnus said and Bellatrix joined her sisters again, pleased that the young king had taken interest in her.

"Avalon", the final book in Stephen Lawhead's 'Pendragon Cycle', is a fitting conclusion to the Arthurian legend of a king who was, and will be again. When James Arthur Stuart finds out he is heir to the throne, he is dumbfounded to say the least; and when he is told that he is the legendary King Arthur reborn, he finds himself remembering his previous life in spite of his doubts.
