The task of creating a realistic set of guidelines is always complex. The beer style guidelines developed by the BA use sources from the commercial brewing industry, beer analyses, and consultations with beer industry experts and knowledgeable beer enthusiasts as resources for information.

Grain is a must have item, for not only beer, but also many other cooking recipes. Any grain will work for making beer. BDO considers the following crops as grain: potatoes, corn, barley, wheat, and sweet potatoes. Normal quality grains can be gathered passively from nodes by workers, gathered by hand, or farmed.

The definition of beer goes something like this: an alcoholic beverage, made from malted cereal grain, flavored with hops, and brewed by slow fermentation. The English word "beer" comes from the Latin "bibere" meaning, "to drink". Mainly, beer is made from malted barley, hops, yeast and water. Barley is a grain, high in starch. Starch converts into sugar during the mashing process.
