BIG FISH is a musical about parenthood, family and love. These are shared experiences of all human beings. The theatre continues: “This added moment of focus created questions about whether the director’s addition would convey a message about gay marriage in a way that would be seen as inclusive to some but exclusive to others.”

Big Fish: The Shooting Script by John August

A reader forwarded a link to this structural analysis of Big Fish, which attempts to break down my screenplay down into five plot points:. Inciting incident. Lock in. First culmination. Main culmination. Third act twist. It’s always strange seeing your work dissected by others, especially when they’re trying to fit a specific template with unfamiliar terminology.
