Bob Blitzer is a native of Manhattan and received a Bachelor of Arts degree with dual majors in mathematics and psychology (minor: English literature) from the City College of New York. His unusual combination of academic interests led him toward a Master of Arts in mathematics from the University of Miami and a doctorate in behavioral sciences from Nova University.

Blitzer engages students with the mathematical world around them.; Outstanding applications have been updated with real-world data. The goal is to put learning into context for the students and show the relevance of math. Applications include stretching one's life span, the emotional health of college freshmen, changing attitudes toward marriage, American Idol's viewership, math-themed comic ...
