The flawless and effortless flow of the Book of Mormon through its many story lines is circumstantial evidence that the book is true. Anyone who makes a serious study of the book will intuitively understand that it could not have been written by a poorly educated farm boy like Joseph Smith, and certainly not in the short amount of time and in the hurried circumstances in which it was produced.

This Book of Mormon reading chart is available in black and white or color and in two different sizes! Use the black and white to color in each chapter as you read it. Use the color version if you are looking for something more cheery and fun all year. Instead of coloring each leaf in, cross out or check off each chapter as you read it.
