Mathematics and Science education have both grown in fertile directions in different geographic regions. Yet, the mainstream discourse in international handbooks does not lend voice to developments in cognition, curriculum, teacher development, assessment, policy and implementation of mathematics and science in many countries. Paradoxically, in spite of advances in information technology and the "flat earth" syndrome, old distinctions and biases between different groups of researcher's persist. In addition limited accessibility to conferences and journals also contribute to this problem. The International Sourcebooks in Mathematics and Science Education focus on under-represented regions of the world and provides a platform for researchers to showcase their research and development in areas within mathematics and science education. The First Sourcebook on Asian Research in Mathematics Education: China, Korea, Singapore, Japan, Malaysia and India provides the first synthesized treatment of mathematics education that has both developed and is now prominently emerging in the Asian and South Asian world. The book is organized in sections coordinated by leaders in mathematics education in these countries and editorial teams for each country affiliated with them. The purpose of unique sourcebook is to both consolidate and survey the established body of research in these countries with findings that have influenced ongoing research agendas and informed practices in Europe, North America (and other countries) in addition to serving as a platform to showcase existing research that has shaped teacher education, curricula and policy in these Asian countries. The book will serve as a standard reference for mathematics education researchers, policy makers, practitioners and students both in and outside Asia, and complement the Nordic and NCTM perspectives.

The CBSE has made certain changes in the assessment structure from the session 2019-20 onwards. In the new scheme of examination, CCE and term system has been replaced with the Internal Assessment & Single Annual Exam by CBSE itself. Single exam conducted by CBSE will carry 80 marks whereas 20 marks are left to the schools for internal assessment. CBSE has issued detailed guidelines on how the internal marks will be divided among different activities. From 2019 onwards, there will be internal choices in board examinations with increased internal options in the question paper. Considering this change, now a student has to prepare accordingly for board examinations. The new assessment format brought with it excitement as well as anxiety. And to help them prepare and excel in their CBSE board examination, Career Point Kota has developed a series of 10 Most Likely Question Papers with Solutions.
