Growth of any kind follows a typical pattern. As with a growing organism, the local church has those who plant the seed (evangelists), those who water the seed (pastor/teachers), and others who use their spiritual gifts for the growth of those in the local church. But note that it is God who gives the increase (1 Corinthians 3:7).

Introduction. Growth is an essential quality of the Kingdom of God that Jesus proclaimed and taught. His short and long parables; principles of fruitfulness; commission to go and make disciples; and more examples, all make it clear that growth is not negotiable. The book of Acts is a story of mission, church planting and church growth and underlines that growth through the church is a significant part of the wider Kingdom growth.
