~~Scarcely Used A
Flaxborough~~

In the respectable seaside town of Flaxborough, the equally respectable councillor Harold Carobleat is laid to rest.

Cause of death:

pneumonia. But he is scarcely cold in his coffin before Detective Inspector Purbright , affable and annoyingly polite, must turn out again to examine the death of Carobleat's neighbour, Marcus Gwill, former prop. of the local rag, the Citizen .

COFFIN, SCARCELY USED is the opening salvo of the series, written in 1958, introducing in a perfect, low key manner, Inspector Walter Purbright, who finds himself investigating a most unexpected crime spree in the quiet, respectable little town of Flaxborough, particularly as the spree is amongst it's leading citizens.
