Living on a Cruise Ship: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly

We have asked a selection of on board employees to describe the highs and lows of their typical working day - we hope this offers a useful insight into what life is really like living and working on board a cruise ship.

Life As A Crew Member On A Cruise Ship...

Guests on a cruise ship are always curious about the life of crew members. Crew members curious about what to expect from their first contract on a ship are nervous. From living arrangements, food, pay, time off and the infamous parties - life within crew areas remains a mystery to most of the world.

The last thing you want to deal with on a cruise is lots of annoying passengers .

#9. It rolls downhill. There was a time on one of my ships that the mistress was pretty pissed because the wife and kid came aboard for a visit, lasting maybe a month or two... The crew was especially wary during that time, since shit has a habit of rolling downhill, and it did then, too.

In a nutshell, can you summarize Cruise Ship SOS and Holiday SOS? They are two 'year in the life of' books - a year in the life of a doctor who flies round the world to help people who've hit trouble overseas. And a dramatic year in the life of a doctor on a massive cruise ship - trying to keep smiling while dealing with hundreds of extraordinary incidents from thousands of passengers and crew.

The Viking Sky cruise ship sent an SOS due to "engine problems in bad weather", while police reported 1300 passengers would be evacuated by helicopter.

The Navigator, the ship Jablin currently lives in, is one of many ships in their fleet. Between all these ships, Jablin and his wife initially selected ships like the Voyager and the Mariner to set sail on. Eventually, though, they switched it up, preferring the Navigator. By 2000, this was the ship they chose every time they left for a cruise.
