Champion of French cuisine At Epicure, our celebrated chef Eric Frechon, who holds four Michelin stars, has created a temple of gastronomy that is absolutely French. His macaroni stuffed with black truffle, artichoke and duck foie gras, gratinée with aged Parmesan is an unforgettable dish that people travel to Paris to experience.

Specializing in classical French cuisine, Chef Frechon has expanded his gastronomy empire with the addition of restaurants Le Mini Palais and Le Lazare in Paris, and as the Chef Patron at Céleste in The Lanesborough Hotel, London. Priscilla Pilon: Did you have chef mentors during your rise?

Eric Frechon's pro tip: The best way to serve this croque-monsieur is with a nutmeg cream, a Parmesan cream, or a lettuce coulis to bring out the flavor of the ingredients. Related Links. Walking in Paris is different now... here's why; Looking for another delicious recipe to make at home?
