Daughters of the Moon 1: Goddess of the Night by Lynne Ewing is a fun fantasy novel about Vanessa Cleveland, a Los Angeles teen who has the ability to disappear, but only when her emotions are strongest. She keeps this power secret from everyone except for her best friend, Cattie, who has the power to time jump.

Welcome to Daughters of the Moon! Click on the top right arrow to hear "Song for the World," a beautiful, loving song by Nicole (see her photo on the left and on You Tube) We offer her incredible music for your pleasure. "Sometimes, when I was younger, especially in times of trouble, I would look into the night sky and turn towards the moon for solace and comfort.

"The Daughters of the Moon Tarot truly captures the feminist spirit. Working with this deck, one cannot help but feel a joyous celebration in being a woman. Using her to solve a problem or to make a decision, these very beautiful images and words provide an underlying message of wisdom and joy that evolves our trust in our own intuitive judgement and the truth of it" - Merlin Stone Daughters of the Moon is a series of early 2000's novels by Lynne Ewing. It's about four girls — later five — who find out they're Goddesses. Or, more specifically, daughters of the moon goddess Selene who are destined to fight an ancient evil called the Atroux and its followers, who aim to devour all hope from the world.

As they become friends, their incredible powers bind them together as The Daughters of the Moon. In Book One, Vanessa, who has always had the power to become invisible, discovers that she and her best friend Catty, a time-traveler, are goddesses of the moon who must fight together to overcome the evil Atroux.
