Cave art is an invention of the ancient Indian Buddhists, but their achievement was far surpassed by the Chinese grottoes, both in grandeur and in the length of time the original artwork has remained in situ. Besides the ample achievement in visual art, the Dunhuang art is a witness to the toleration and fusion of different cultures.

The beautiful image from Cave 407 is the best known of all the three-hares designs at Dunhuang. The hares are surrounded by two bands of lotus petals against a background of celestial maidens (feitian) flying in the same direction as the hares. Notice the hares' eyes, all four legs, and the white scarves trailing from around their necks.
