Like this apple jelly recipe. Fruit butter, preserves, and chutney. Jelly and jam are probably the most recognizable fruit spreads, but there are some others to consider, too. Fruit preserves are similar to jam, but generally have larger chunks of fruit or whole berries.

Amazon.co.uk:Customer reviews: Easy Jams, Chutneys and ...

Easy Jams, Chutneys, and Preserves. What I particularly love about this book is it is great for allotmentee's, as those of us that also grow our own fruit and veg often have a glut of it with no idea what to do with it, no matter how careful we are. Making preserves is a great way to use up the extra.

What Others Say About Easy Jams, Chutneys and Preserves. I'm not much of a chutney maker usually but I've had to rearrange my kitchen cupboards to store all the stuff I've made from this book. Good, clear instructions and quite a range of things to try. A godsend in the middle of an allotment marrow and tomato glut.

Home made preserves make the perfect gift - in fact our family and friends look quite disappointed if they get a shop bought present instead of our home made jam or chutney. Making fruit jams actually goes back as far as Roman times - although they used honey instead of sugar.
