The New Testament also speaks very clearly concerning our eating, especially in its presentation of Christ as the portion of all the believers. In Eating the Lord Witness Lee unveils the great scriptural truth that eating the Lord is simply to enjoy the Lord so that God can impart Himself into man to fulfill His heart's desire. When we believed in the gospel, a great feast was spread before us, and day by day we can keep this feast by cooperating with the Lord's inward operation.

From beginning to end, the Bible speaks of eating the Lord. When God created man, He placed man in front of Himself as the tree of life, and rather than commanding man concerning praise or worship, He commanded man to eat. The Old Testament speaks further concerning the matter of eating in its presentation of the types of the Passover lamb, the offerings in the tabernacle, and the produce of ...

Eating Drinking And Rejoicing. But you shall eat them before the Lord your God in the place which the Lord your God will choose, you and your son and daughter, and your male and female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates; and you shall rejoice before the Lord your God in all your undertakings. Deuteronomy 27:7.

The way to eat the Lord is to pray the Word; to pray-read the Word of God is to exercise our spirit to eat the word (Eph. 6:17-18). We should not depend or rely on our understanding as we read the Bible; we should not try to compose long prayers based on our understanding of the word; we should simply take the word, make it our prayer, and pray it back to the Lord with the exercise of our spirit and our amen!

The manna that descends from heaven is good in the eyes of man, but God does not want manna as an offering. God did not say that we should offer manna as a burnt offering, a wave offering, or a heave offering. Rather, He said, "Eat! It is only good to be your food; it is not good enough to be My offering."

In other words, we eat and drink the Lord. At the same time, when we break the bread, we also declare and testify to the whole universe that we are a group of Christians who live a life of daily feasting on Christ, daily eating Christ, and daily enjoying Christ. Whenever we break the bread, it is an exhibition of our daily life. In our normal living we eat the Lord, drink the Lord, and enjoy the Lord.

John suggested this by recording what the Lord said in v 56: "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him." For John, the abiding relationship that the believer can have with the Lord involves more than simply receiving eternal life as a gift of God's grace through faith. The believer can grow in that life.
