Jesus, the Friend of Sinners - Grace to You

Friend of Sinners why Jesus cares more about relationship than perfection is a MUST read for every believer!! This is an easy read with profound truths wrapped in grace. Rich Wilkerson Jr. has a gift for breathing new life to classic bible stories while sharing his own personal and funny stories.

Jesus, our friend, spent time with sinners, not to join their sinful ways but to present them the good news that forgiveness was available. Many sinners were transformed by His words of life—Zacchaeus being a prime example (Luke 19:1-10). When Jesus' enemies called Him a "friend of sinners," they meant it as an insult.

Was Jesus really a "friend" of tax collectors and sinners? As our above text shows, it is plainly stated that Jesus is a friend of tax collectors and sinners, but lest we cast ourselves off the pinnacle of the temple, as it were, in our simple-mindedness, let us examine this passage more closely.

Jesus was a friend of sinners not because he winked at sin, ignored sin, or enjoyed light-hearted revelry with those engaged in immorality. Jesus was a friend of sinners in that he came to save sinners and was very pleased to welcome sinners who were open to the gospel, sorry for their sins, and on their way to putting their faith in Him.

Was Jesus a Friend of Sinners? - Truth According to Scripture

In Friend of Sinners, Rich Wilkerson Jr. shows readers the profound implications of the reality that Jesus calls us friends not because of who we are or what we have done, but because of who he is. While he was on earth, he knew that people needed to belong before they would want to behave.

Question: "What is the significance of Jesus eating with sinners?" Answer: Soon after calling Matthew to follow Him, Jesus ate a meal with "many tax collectors and sinners" in Matthew's house (Mark 2:15). Matthew had been a tax collector, and these "sinners" were his friends and acquaintances who were now spending time with Jesus.

Jesus was called a friend of sinners by the Pharisees (Matthew 9:11; 11:16-19). They meant it as an assault on His reputation. The Pharisees, from their own sense of self-righteousness and superiority, kept their distance from "tax collectors and sinners" (a despised group), whereas Jesus conversed with and even dined with them (Luke 19:5-7).

Again, Jesus clearly tells us who His friends are in John 15:14, You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. Is this not the very antitheses of the claim, "Jesus is a friend of sinners"? He says, in essence, you are not my friends if you are sinners, i.e., those who do not do what I command them.
