Introduction to Investing 1.12.1.A4: 1. A share of ownership in a company. 2. A form of lending to a company or the government (city, state, or federal). 3. A mutual fund is created when a company combines the funds of many different investors and then invests that money in a diversified portfolio of stocks and bonds.

An important part of investing is balancing risk and reward to find a level of risk you're comfortable with. Usually, investing in stocks involves more risk than investing in bonds or short-term investments, but it typically offers more opportunity for greater gains. When you are younger and further from retirement age, you
