With more than 500,000 copies sold, the New York Times best-seller Get a Financial Life: Personal Finance in Your Twenties and Thirties (originally published in 1996) has served as the financial bible for young people, laying out in simple, no-nonsense terms, exactly what they need to know.

Get a Financial Life is short on motivation and long on facts. That makes it the perfect book for some (simply because it stacks so much information together in one place) and useless for others.
