The style of clothing are very modern and minimalistic. The templates are set on one sheet of paper printed on both sides, but once you visually see what you are looking for, you're the winner. This really is the best sewing and pattern book I have purchased that has not been left on the shelf amongst the other sewing books to collect dust.

I was recently initiated into the world of Japanese sewing books. Although it might be more accurately described as a hazing rather than an initiation. :) I started with Blouse B from the Girls Style Book. I think my downfall was in my expectations. I had read some of the reviews from the book and a couple of people said it was confusing.
