While you plan your lesson, keep in mind that guided reading is a strategy to help small groups of students read out loud together. Doing so teaches them reading comprehension and phonetic skills, too. There are lots of great articles online about doing guided reading, and your school librarian can probably give you lots of pointers.

However, now, guided reading has become a small group catch-all wherein any reading skill, including 'word work' or decoding lessons are also taught. Since the term guided reading is so universal in our schools, I propose that we redefine this small reading group practice to empower teachers to TEACH first then GUIDE our students to become proficient readers.
