The hymn later gained popularity in the United States where it is used as part of Thanksgiving celebrations. The first verse is written as a celebration of the harvest, calling for people to give thanks to God for it. The last two verses are based on the Parable of the Tares, and discuss the last harvest at the Second Coming of Jesus.

Thanksgiving worship will be held at Zion Wednesday November 25 and St. John's Thursday November 26. Check out our calendar in November for exact service times. We plan to worship with a favorite hymn sing this year and praise our living God. We still have much to be thankful for in 2020.

Lord of the harvest, Lord of the field...

Give thanks, my soul, for harvest, for store of fruit and grain, but know the owner gives so that we may share again. Where people suffer hunger, or little children cry, with gifts from God's rich bounty may thankfulness reply. Give thanks, my soul for riches of woodland, mine, and hill, but know that gold and timber are the Creator's still.
