I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun; Of happy memories that I leave when life is done. Anon ...

As the editor of "I Like This Poem," Kaye Webb, points out, there is always a poem to console us, to give us hope. "I Like This Poem" was truly a labor labor of love, if you would excuse the cliché. Although Ms. Webb's name appears on the cover, it was her idea and will to have children in age groups, from Age 6 through 15, to select their own favorite poems.

I like you . 23) Ever since I saw you. For the very first time. My world has become sweet. Just like this cute rhyme. I wish that you too. Could share this sweetness. And go on a date with me. I hope that you say yes. I like you . 24) I like everything about you. Especially your beautiful face. My heart will keep pursuing you. Even if it has to put up a chase
