LBENEL - CAROLYN QUINCY

The Into The Wild unit was an interdisciplinary PBL where we biked 52.6 miles to Loveland, Ohio. Along the way we stopped at various locations to collect water samples. At different stops we had student experts share facts about the area. The trip took 3 days. We camped at Morgan's campground and canoed 6 miles.

Form Jack London's, The Call of the Wild. The "beast" in the chapter is Chris and how he starts to push society away. For example when he worked at McDonald's he did not like to wear shoes, his aversions of people and how he would do calisthenics in the morning to get in shape and discuss survival strategies with Bob.

In the book Into the Wild, Chris McCandless represents many different ways of the relationship between nature and American identity. One example that stood out to me was the fact he believed there is a portion of humanity meant to belong to nature, and a very small portion meant to belong to civilization.

Into the Wild - Dr. Alec Patton's Digital Portfolio

Into the wild "So many people live within unhappy circumstances and yet will not take the initiative to change their situation because they are conditioned to a life of security, conformity, and conservatism, all of which may appear to give one peace of mind, but in reality nothing is more damaging to the adventurous spirit within a man than a secure future.

The book Into the Wild by Jon Krakauer tells the true story of a young man named Chris McCandless who decides to leave society behind in exchange for the refreshing rawness of the Alaskan wilderness.

"Into the Wild" "Based on a true story. After graduating from Emory University, Christopher McCandless abandoned his possessions, gave his entire savings account to charity, and hitchhiked to Alaska to live in the wilderness. Along the way, Christopher encounters a series of characters who shape his life."

by Jon Krakauer Into the Wild is the true story of Chris McCandless, a young Emory graduate who is found dead in the Alaskan wilderness in September 1992, when he is twenty-four.

Summary of Into the Wild "A young man leaves his middle class existence in pursuit of freedom from relationships and obligation. Giving up his home, family, all possessions but the few he carried on his back and donating all his savings to charity Christopher McCandless (Emile Hirsch) embarks on a journey throughout America.
