As you prepare for your job interview and study the different commonly asked interview questions, you will see that certain questions will warrant an answer with a little more depth or back story. But there will be other interview questions that are simpler and will only require a more literal, straightforward response.

You want the interview to go smoothly, so you and your partner should agree ahead of time on how you will organize the interview and who will lead the discussion, or what sections of it each of you will lead.

One of the most crucial interview tips: Listen. From the very beginning of the interview, your interviewer is giving you information, either directly or indirectly. If you are not hearing it, you are missing a major opportunity. Good communication skills include listening and letting the person know you heard what was said. Observe your interviewer, and match that style and pace.

Point out areas that are a match between your skills and the requirements of the position. Be prepared to discuss ways in which you have excelled or situations where you have demonstrated your initiative and ability to be proactive. Be enthusiastic and positive. Bring an original copy of your resume.
