JUST SAY YES, perhaps the first marijuana memoir ever published, is a positive account of long-term cannabis use. With ruthless honesty and deadpan humor, the author observes the effect of weed upon every aspect of her life: marriage, motherhood, friendship, work, sport, sex.

It can be easy for people who aren't CEOs of multi-million pound companies to say "well yes, if I was chauffeured to work like Tim Armstrong of AOL I'd also be more productive and be able to wake up early with no stress". But there are plenty of people who do set their alarms early and who try to seize the day. Some are just early risers.

"Just say yes." This was a phrase said to me by Becky Cook, professional traveler and co-owner of Vagabond Ventures Travel, the adventure agency that gave me the trip of a lifetime. As simple as it is and as many times as I've heard that three-word sentence in my life, it wasn't until this trip that it really resonated.
