Lies Unspoken (Flawed Love #1) (91)Lisa De Jong. Lies Unspoken (Flawed Love #1) (91) Blake is worth it. He lowers me to the bed slowly with the soft press of his hand. He kisses me, leaving nothing behind. His tongue traces the seam of my lips—exploring and tasting—before dancing its way to mine. I lift my hips, craving all of him, but he ignores it, kissing his way down my throat.

Lies Unspoken (Flawed Love #1)(94) Lisa De Jong. A dark shadow crosses the room, not stopping until I'm caged between it and the wall. His familiar scent envelops me, and stark reality hits me, lending me back my voice. "You need to go," I whisper, bracing myself against the wall, anything to put distance between us.

3.5 Stars. Lies Unspoken (Flawed Love #1) - my review. Ahahahhhhaa.... I finally get some peace after that dreadful cliffy in book one. Love triangles, you gotta love them. So much drama and angst. "Love is complicated, and in its best form, it's unspoken.". Book 2 picks right up where book 1 ended.
