Lord Palmerston—Views on liberalism and conservatism ...

Palmerston, he evoked an era of gunboat diplomacy. WHY? Because he understood the British empire rested on its ability to deter aggression and his gutsy vindictive nature of sending the royal navy anywhere it took to protect the honor of England. With the exception of churchill, Palmerston was a great defender of empire, uniquly british.

The popular hero. In 1848-49 Palmerston was more intent upon preserving the general peace than upon patronizing Liberalism. In 1849-51, however, he won Radical applause for his denunciations of the cruelty of counterrevolutionaries; for his release of British arms to Sicilian insurgents and his later endorsement of William Ewart Gladstone ’s exposure of King Ferdinand’s treatment of political prisoners; by his evident approval of the hostile reception given to the Austrian general ...

Lord Palmerston—The popular hero | Britannica

Lord Palmerston (Henry John Temple, 3rd Viscount Palmerston)was the British Prime Minister during the American Civil War. Although he was anti-slavery, his sympathies were with the Confederacy, believing that once independent of the United States they would be a valuable trading partner in cotton, tobacco, tea, and whisky.
