Addressing the infidelity in the marriage would only be scratching the surface of our problems. Not only had I stepped out of the marriage, but I found out that the other young lady was pregnant with my child. I'd always told myself that I wouldn't be like the man that helped bring me into the world. He got me here, but he didn't help ...

Built To Last – Tightknots Marriage Ministry

The following are the four bedrock values that have helped to make our marriage built to last. 1. Today Is A Good Day. Part of creating a marriage built to last is finding the good and being thankful for it all, frustrations and happiness. A good day for us is no longer a day when we have absolutely no quarreling or frustration with each other.
