The international financial value of motorsports, and in particular Grand Prix racing, has grown substantially in recent years. This book focuses upon the massive size, value, importance and impact of the industry. It investigates the dominance of UK-based research and development and design and focuses on key management themes of teamworking, leadership, strategy and innovation.

White Van Man' is a larger-than-life presence on Britain's road, but he's no fool. Given the choice, he inevitably opts for a Ford Transit...and indeed he has been doing so, more than for any other van, for the past 45-plus years. Why? Because the Transit better suits the needs of working drivers than anything else around.

Take on the challenge of becoming a chess player using this book to give you a solid foundation of the basics. Chess might seem harder to play than checkers, but once you understand the moves and the rules, it can be truly enjoyable! Among many other topics you'll learn here: - The ancient origins of chess and how it evolved over time - How each piece moves and how to apply the basic rules - The most successful chess strategies to dominate every game - How to apply superior opening tactics and strategies to win every game - How to craft a superior mid-dlegame plan to prepare for a successful endgame - To deliver the final strike when the two fighting minds reach the decisive phase of endgame - And so much more. You know you need to checkmate your opponent before he checkmates you. But checkmate isn't as easy as it sounds. Wrestling your opponent's king into a position to checkmate him can take hours. Many casual players lacking the know-how give up on endgames they're certain to win.

This is the first edition of this publication which presents a comprehensive collection of data on consumption patterns in the EU, including spending patterns, prices, consumption habits, consumer attitudes and quality indicators, as well as providing details of European policy initiatives. The data has been taken from various sources including Eurostat and other surveys, and has been compiled using the COICOP (Classification of Individual Consumption by Purpose) classification. The primary aim of this publication is to provide policy-makers with relevant information for the evaluation and development of consumer policy, but will also be of interest to others concerned with consumer affairs such as consumer organisations, public authorities, advertisers and other businesses interested in European-wide markets.

You're walking through Sheffield City Centre and see somebody buying some flowers at a market stall. Nothing special about that but you do a double take as sunlight blinks from something metallic. The street seller isn't human! A beaten and battered robot is behind the counter. It's Hank, one of the vintage robots living in Sheffield doing his day job. Mecanismos is a series of snapshots drawn by local artist GrainArt that feature members of the robot Brown family and their friends. Look deeply into the drawings and feel what it would be like to be in their shoes.

This introductory text provides readers with a robust understanding of tourism and its industries, including how destinations are developed, marketed and managed, and how tourism impacts communities, environments and economies. The authors discuss the critical issues affecting 21st century tourism, such as sustainability, the climate crisis, globalisation, community, technology, the environment and the sharing economy. The text has been fully updated in light of the Covid-19 pandemic and its notable, and in some cases lasting, impacts on the tourism industry. The text features new mini-case studies (snapshots) and international case studies from countries around the globe including USA, Saudi Arabia, India, China, New Zealand, Australia, Namibia and the UK. It discusses the latest trends in transport, hospitality, attractions and the travel trade and includes examples from major tourism companies including Trip.com, TUI and Airbnb. The book is suitable for students who are starting their tourism studies as part of their college or university education. Clare Inkson is a Senior Lecturer in Tourism and Course Leader of BA Tourism with Business at the University of Westminster, London. Lynn Minnaert is the Academic Director and Clinical Associate Professor at New York University's Jonathan M. Tisch Center for Hospitality and Tourism.

An illuminating collection of work by members of the Religious Society of Friends. Covering nearly three centuries of religious development, this comprehensive anthology brings together writings from prominent Friends that illustrate the development of Quakerism, show the nature of Quaker spiritual life, discuss Quaker contributions to European and American civilization, and introduce the diverse community of Friends, some of whom are little remembered even among Quakers today. It gives a balanced overview of Quaker history, spanning the globe from its origins to missionary work, and explores daily life, beliefs, perspectives, movements within the community, and activism throughout the world. It is an exceptional contribution to contemporary understanding of religious thought. For more than seventy years, Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the En-
