With changes in technology, the new method for getting the large print TV Guide you want is via Kindle - by far the most popular eReader. TV Guide now offers a Kindle version of the TV Guide, which then allows you to increase the font display as large as you want it. Even better, when you order the TV Guide in print version, you now automatically get the Kindle version as well.

Over the weekend, The New York Times published the last daily TV listings in its print edition. According to an article announcing the end of print TV listings, for years only the local New York City edition of the paper has carried TV listings in print. Why the change? Because a printed TV grid no longer makes sense in the streaming era of television.
