Many students of public speaking are like that woman. They want to get their subjects out of a book or a magazine instead of from their own knowledge and convictions. For example, a few years ago, I was one of the three judges in an intercollegiate speaking contest over the NBC network. The judges never saw the speakers.

CHAPTER I CHAPTER II CHAPTER III CHAPTER IV CHAPTER V ...

Training in public speaking is not a matter of externals--primarily; it is not a matter of imitation--fundamentally; it is not a matter of conformity to standards--at all. Public speaking is public utterance, public issuance, of the man himself; therefore the first thing both in time and in importance is that the man should be and think and feel things that are worthy of being given forth.
