Taking the "wind" to mean something worthless and foolish (see Job 7:7; Proverbs 11:29; and Ecclesiastes 1:14, 17), we can surmise that Israel's foolishness in the past would result in a veritable storm of consequence. Indeed, in the previous verses, Hosea decries Israel's idolatry (verses 4-6). Their foolish pursuit of false gods would reap a severe judgment from the Lord.
