Central to their theologies of history is the "positive" nature of the Christian religion over against the Enlightenment's "natural" religion of reason. This positivity is articulated in three basic metaphors: the kingdom of God, organic life, and education, which together provide a narrative structure for understanding the life of the individual Christian and of the Christian community in its relation to the Old Testament and to world history.

Religion of Reason out of the Sources of Judaism. by Hermann Cohen. Translated, with an Introduction, by Simon Kaplan. Introductory Essay by Leo Strauss. Frederick Ungar. 489 pp. $15.00. Modern philosophers of Judaism have always had to face a dilemma. If they follow closely the most prominent strands of Jewish tradition, elucidating underlying concepts and revealing connections, then they act as historians of Jewish religion, but they do not create Jewish philosophy.
