Overview | Scholastic Guided Reading Programs

Guided reading is also referred to as Fountas and Pinnell Levels after its founders. How Does Guided Reading Work? Guided reading is used in the classroom for small-group instruction. When your child enters a new grade, he or she is assessed and assigned a guided reading level based on word knowledge, comprehension, and fluency.

The Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ Guided Reading Collection is for the classroom teacher who wants to expand and refine children's reading and writing powers in grades K-6. This context is implemented in a small-group setting for teachers to support each reader's development of their systems of strategic actions for processing new texts at increasingly challenging levels of difficulty.
