Smash into You is a bit different than her previous works yet it is still Shelly Crane through and through. A great love story. And though her characters may not be typical or relatable to our everyday lives since most of us have not lived the way the two main characters have, you still feel like you know them and can empathize with their situation.

If you've ever come to see me at an event or book signing or convention in the past, (as on the left) all I can say is I'm sorry! ☹ ☹ ☹ ☹♀ Because let me tell you, this past decade has been something else, amazing and truly some of the best times EVER, but wasn't always kind.
