Stories of Your Life and Others Summary | SuperSummary

Stories of Your Life and Others is a collection of short stories by American writer Ted Chiang originally published in 2002 by Tor Books. It collects Chiang's first eight stories. All of the stories except "Liking What You See: A Documentary" were previously published individually elsewhere.

Chiang is a writer who takes both aspects of the phrase science fiction seriously. The challenge of Louise Bank in "The Story of Your Life" is to find a way to communicate with the aliens, called heptapods. Chiang is well-versed in semiotics. In other stories Chiang very well distills mathematical theory ("Division by Zero").
