NMI3NV - ANGIE LILLIANNA

Alice Hawkins was a working class lady and strong socialist who joined the suffragette movement in 1907 after her first arrest outside Parliament on the day of the State opening. Imprisoned 5 times in all, Alice is credited with founding the Leicester branch of the WSPU with the help of the Pankhurst sisters.

In 1909 a young girl is taken from her poor background and raised by a wealthy benefactor to become a lady, Dollie is very grateful for the chance she has been given but finds herself drawn to the plight of the women's suffrage movement. The story goes on to tell of her experiences whilst campaigning for the women's right to vote.

The Suffragettes wanted the right for women to vote. The move for women to have the vote had really started in 1897 when Millicent Fawcett founded the National Union of Women's Suffrage. "Suffrage" means the right to vote and that is what women wanted - hence its inclusion in Fawcett's title. Millicent Fawcett believed in peaceful protest.

The inspiration for the award-winning film Suffragette, this is the story of a woman who dedicated her life to advancing the cause of women's rights, in her own words. Emmeline Pankhurst grew up all too aware of the prevailing attitude of her day: that men were considered superior to women. When she was just fourteen she attended her first suffrage meeting, and returned home a confirmed suffragist.
