Character is something we tend to think of as a static, enduring quality, and yet we glorify stories of personal transformation. "The Ego Trick: In Search of the Self" — is an absorbing journey across philosophy, anthropology, sociology, neuroscience, religion and psychology. The Ego Trick is more in-depth and more thoroughly researched than his previous work and is so demanding more concentration. That said, this isn't a book aimed at philosophy geeks, but at anyone with an enquiring mind. If anything, I'd say it could've gone into more detail, but this balance is always a fine one.
