Jerome Christenson: The joy of being three and a half ...

The joy of the Lord may be inexplicable to the one who does not possess it. But, for the believer in Christ, the joy of the Lord comes as naturally as grapes on a vine. As we abide in Christ, the True Vine, we, the branches, are full of His strength and vitality, and the fruit we produce, including joy, is His doing (John 15:5).

"The joy of the Lord is your strength" (Nehemiah 8:10). Whether the "joy of the Lord" here refers mainly to the joy he has in himself, or to the joy he gives us, we have no real hope of joy or strength unless God is happy (John 15:11). God does not give us any joy outside of the joy he has in himself already.
