The main carp water on the Bluebell complex, home to the late Benson at 64lb. Kingfisher Lake remains one of the best day-ticket waters in the country. This 7 acre lake offers varying depths but generally range from 13ft and 16ft. The many overhanging trees can provide little sanctuaries for some great marginal angling.

The Kingfisher has an eagle's nest view of the lake for outdoor dining and several unique features such as: double oven, outdoor shower, outdoor firepit, gas fireplace on a screened in porch, gas fireplace in the living room, gas grill, two laundry rooms and much more! The Kingfisher has trail access to the water, with a beach...
