Henriette Anne Stuart, Duchesse d'Orleans, known by the diminutive Minette, was born in England in June 1644. She was the daughter of King Charles I of England and Queen Henrietta Maria of France, a descendant of both royal houses of Stuart and Bourbon.

In June of the same year, Henrietta and her governess, Anne Villiers, Countess of Morton (known also as Lady Dalkeith), fled in secret to France. The infant Henrietta was reunited with her mother, who had been seeking aid from the French for her husband's war effort. The Royalists were ultimately defeated, and Charles I was executed in 1649.
