There are three kinds of lies: lies, damned lies, and statistics. The secret of success is constancy to purpose. Action may not always bring happiness; but there is no happiness without action. The secret of success in life is for a man to be ready for his opportunity when it comes. The greatest good you can do for another is not just to share your riches but to reveal to him his own. I am prepared for the worst, but hope for the best. Nurture your minds with great thoughts. To believe in the heroic makes heroes. Change is inevitable. Change is constant. Life is too short to be little. Man is never so manly as when he feels deeply, acts boldly, and expresses himself with frankness and with fervor. Youth is a blunder; manhood a struggle; old age a regret. Write Your Daily Quarantine Memories Your GORGEOUS notebook by Note Lovers is here! Excerpt from Wit and Wisdom of Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield: Collected From His Writings and Speeches As 'good wine needs no bush, ' so words of wit and wisdom, whether falling from the lips, or flowing from the pen, of a great man, do not call for a preface - and no one will gainsay the fact that Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield, was one of the greatest men of the century - probably the greatest, when the difficulties which he had to overcome are taken into consideration. It is not given to many to excel either in action or in thought; to very few indeed to be facile princeps in both, as was Lord Beaconsfield - a Janus of literature and politics, in the study a Thackeray, a Boling-broke in the Senate. But this is neither the time nor the place for panegyric The air is still ringing with the voice of unanimous England, proclaiming the patience and the patriotism of the great statesman, extolling the eloquence of the brilliant debater, the sparkling phrases of the witty writer, who has just passed away.
