The Second Wave, like Meta, is just a lot of fun to read. The characters are being developed more, and While I still enjoyed the first book, The Second Wave is better in just about every way. Tom Reynolds writing skills have developed a lot, and he's maturing nicely as a writer.

Through this collection, the reader is able to gain a sense of the diverse directions feminist theory has taken over the last 40 years, where feminist theory stands at the moment, and the questions which are just now beginning to emerge. (source: Nielsen Book Data)
