I was so overwhelmed, with sorrow and pain, that I could not hold, back the tears, for those heroes and their families, who lost so much. Though my visit, to the Wall was, a few years ago, I feel, that I left a piece, of my heart there. To honor those, who died in the Vietnam, War and to say thank you, I created a small tribute, to those heroes.

Due to the shortage in materials, the cover for the Criterion yearbook was made from a burlap-type material. The class was told their cover would be the last made for any class for the "duration" (of the war). After graduation, boys went to war and the girls went to work to help do their part for the war effort.
